Willoughby "Pink Tie Week"

Willoughby Golf Club Committee Members Lynn Frank, Mary Hennessy, Martha Matheu, Glenna Clark, Pat Hennessy presented a check for $18,101.56 to Pink Tie Friends, at their volunteer meeting, from the funds they raised during "Pink Tie Week". (Carol Blocklinger not pictured).

Willoughby Golf Club members and guests gathered at the private club in Stuart on Thursday, February 24 for a special Pink Tie Golf Tournament. They raised over $18,000 for Pink Tie Friends, a non-profit organization dedicated to providing financial support for uninsured or under insured breast cancer patients of the Treasure Coast.

This year's Pink Tie Golf Tournament, which was chaired by Martha Matheu and Glenna Clark, was part of a series of events dedicated to raising funds and awareness for the Treasure Coast nonprofit organization during "Pink Tie Week". It took place on February 21 thru 24 at Willoughby Golf Club. Other Pink Tie events throughout the week included Bowling, Pink Tie Men's Golf Day, Tennis Tournaments and a Pink Tie Luncheon and Raffle.

"Pink Tie Friends is an amazing organization that has helped countless breast cancer patients across the Treasure Coast", said Maria Reich, Membership Director at Willoughby Golf Club. "Willoughby Golf Club was honored to host the series of events to benefit this remarkable organization."

Volunteer of The Month

Beth Olson has been selected as our Pink Tie Friends Volunteer of the Month for May. Traveling is something Beth loves doing and she is lucky enough that she can. Beth works from her home as a Travel Agency Cruise Planner. When she isn't traveling she does some waitress work in the evenings and volunteers for her church. Beth and Ron, her husband, have three children, two daughters and a son. They recently took their three and five year old granddaughter and grandson on the "Disney Dream" cruise over Mother's Day.

Beth started volunteering for Pink Tie Friends about a year ago. Because she was a breast cancer survivor, in 2008 she picked up a Pink Tie brochure while she was visiting her sick husband in Martin Memorial Hospital. Beth put it in her purse and forgot about it. One day when she was cleaning out her purse she came across the brochure; called the number to find out how to volunteer and has become part of our Pink Tie family.

Beth loves the organization and volunteering for the many events we hold during the year.

Beth came to Martin County from Chicago. I asked her what made her move here and she told me that all her family, grandparents, uncles, aunts, her parents all moved to Florida over a period of time. So in 1989 her family decided to move too and join everyone in Florida. We are so happy she did and that she found our brochure in the bottom of her purse. Now she travels all over the Treasure Coast volunteering at Pink Tie events to help other breast cancer patients.

Lady Angler

Tournament for the Stuart Sailfish Club

recorded their fair share of sailfish releases Saturday, May 7, but also brought plenty of big dolphin to the docks at Finest Kind Marina. Julie Collins, fished aboard Quick Draw, recorded the first sailfish release of the day at 8:55 a.m. The second-place sailfish was recorded at 11:38 a.m. by Patty Miller on Miller Time, while the third-place went to Cindy

Allen on Kingsburry, who recorded her release at noon. The 2011 Ladies Tournament benefited the Pink Tie Friends and drew 51 anglers who fished aboard 21 boats.
